Project 6 : replacement of aids to navigation damaged by the tsunami incident

- The Exchange Letter between the Government of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the Republic of Indonesia concerning the Project-6 Implementation has already signed on the 20 February 2011 at Jakarta. The Letter was signed by the Indonesian Vice Minister for Transportation and the Chinese Vice Minister of Commerce.
- Both parties has agreed to work expeditiously toward the completion of the 1st Phase of Project "to rehabilitate the first two aids to navigation located in Ulee Lheue Port and Malahayati Port", which also reflect the need for Indonesia to ensure and maintain the safety of navigation in the Strait.

Project 6 : replacement of aids to navigation damaged by the tsunami incident

- Regarding the 2nd phase “to rehabilitate the remaining five aids to navigation located in Pulau Bunta, Ujung Pidie, Pulau Beras (Breuh), Tanjung Jambo Aye, and Ujung Tamiang”, considering the Exchange Letter between the Government of the People’s Republic of China and the Government of the Republic of Indonesia, both parties agreed that Indonesia will be taking over the total implementation of the 2nd phase, while China may provide technical assistances and support to the Indonesian side.
- Further, Indonesia has completed the replacement of the 2nd phase of the project on 2012, which include the replacement on Pulau Bunta Lighthouse, Ujung Pidie Lighthouse, Pulau Beras (Breuh) Lighthouse, Tanjung Jambo Aye Lighthouse, and Ujung Tamiang Lighthouse.

Project 6 : replacement of aids to navigation damaged by the tsunami incident

- Both parties committed to implementing the remaining works expeditiously. The Indonesian government and People's Republic of China Government initiate the internal procedures to commence the replacement works.
- The Soil and water investigation works is already conducted by the company which appointed by People's Republic of China Government on April-May 2013 while the design works and consultation between both parties are in progress.
