

Workshops on marine oil spill risk assessment and on monitoring of marine oil spill

Sabah Malaysia

October 2017

China Maritime
Safety Administration

Background

BUSY- Over 70,000 vessels use the Straits annually;

RISKY- risk of marine oil spill due to the large volumes of ships passing through;

COMPLEX- all kinds of ships, complicated navigation environments, dangerous goods

China Maritime
Safety Administration

Objectives

Effectively lower the risk of marine oil spill in the SOMS

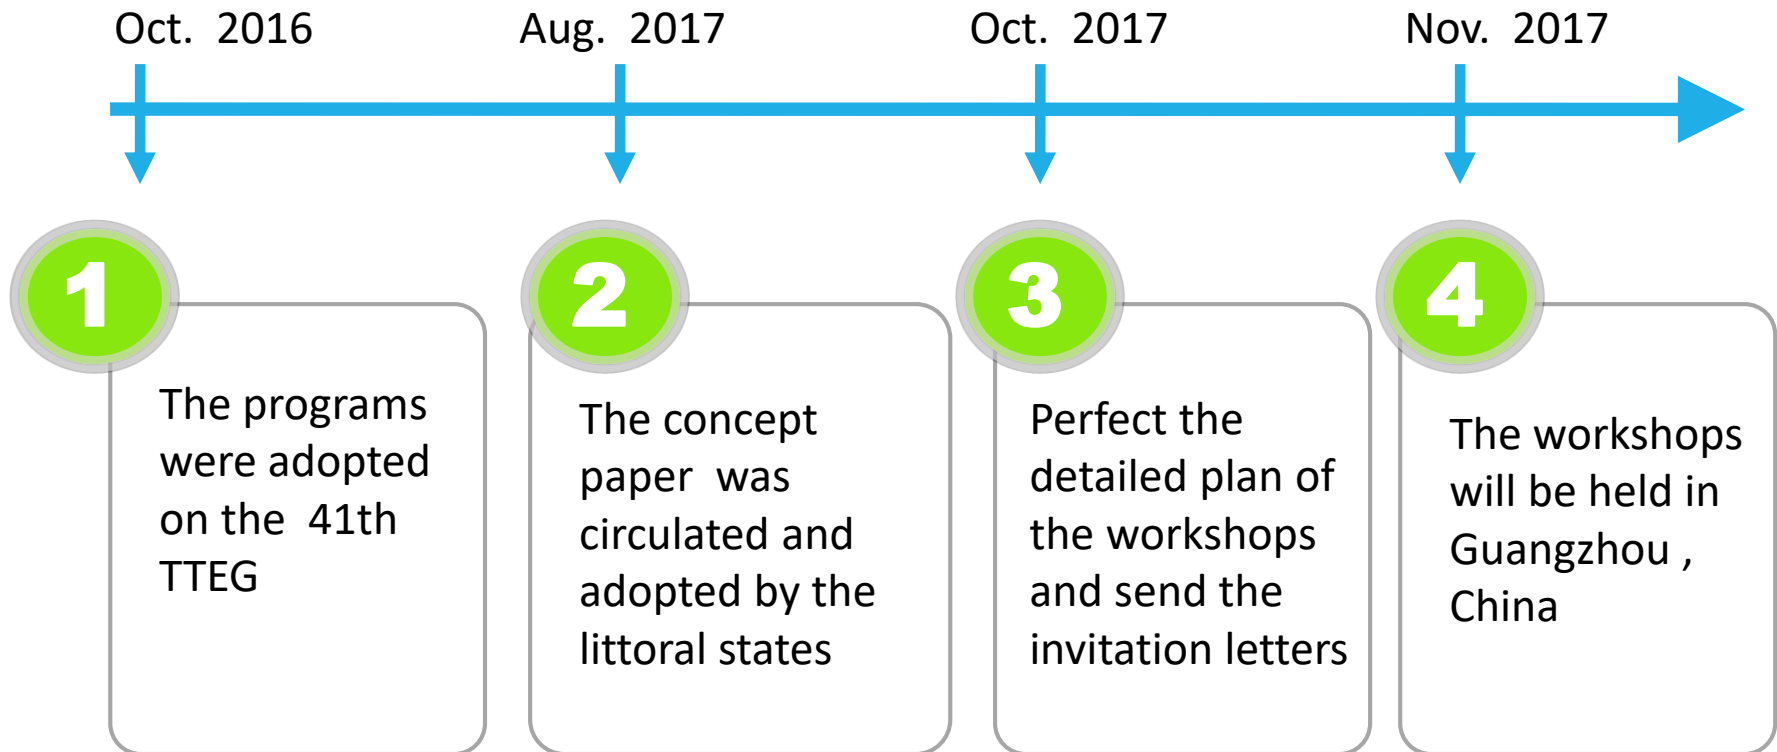

3-step proposals

- 1.To assist in the capacity building of personnel in the coastal states
- 2.To assist littoral states to establish and improve the marine pollution monitoring mechanism
- 3.To assist littoral states to establish marine oil spill monitoring system

China Maritime
Safety Administration

Timeline of the workshops

Propose to conduct two workshops

1

Marine oil spill risk assessment

2

Monitoring of marine oil spill

Coverage

Participants: Persons engaged in marine oil spill management in the SOMS States.

15 participants will be invited to each program, 5 for each country.

Time and duration: late November, 2017

Venue: Guangzhou, China

Approaches: lecture, discussion, technical visit and so on.

Financial support: funded by the Chinese government

China Maritime
Safety Administration

Methods and Contents

Lecture: frontier technology and systematic approaches; emergency response systems;

Discussion: exchange the practical experience; case studies; practical operation

Technical Visit : patrol ship equipped with advanced terminal monitoring facilities; stockpile for pollution prevention ; movable oil spill emergency equipment units.

China Maritime
Safety Administration

Contact Details

If you have any comments or suggestions, please feel free to contact us:

Mrs. Wu Haining

(whning_gz@gdmsa.gov.cn)

Pollution Prevention Division

Mr. Wang Huan (whuan@gdmsa.gov.cn)

Pollution Prevention Division

Ms. Tan Fen (tfen@gdmsa.gov.cn)

Legal Affairs Division

China Maritime Safety Administration of the People's Republic of China

China Maritime
Safety Administration

Thank you!